PHOTOGRAPHS AND MEMORIES

Photographs and memories
Christmas cards you sent to me
All that I have are these

To remember you

Memories that come at night
Take me to another time
Back to a happier day
When I called you mine

But we sure had a good time
When we started way back when . . .

Summer skys and lullabies
Nights we couldn't say good-bye
And of all of the things that we knew
Not a dream survived

Photographs and memories
All the love you gave to me
Somehow it just can't be true
That's all I've left of you

But we sure had a good time
When we started way back when
Morning walks and bedroom talks
Oh how I loved you then the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.2 million (Office of National Statistics 1999). The number of people aged 85 and over has increased by 0.5 million.

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop services to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for ageing, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people and to ensure that they are able to live independently for as long as possible.

The strategy is based on three main principles: (1) to ensure that older people are able to live independently for as long as possible; (2) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the life of the community; and (3) to ensure that older people are able to live in the place of their choice.

The strategy is based on the following assumptions: (1) that older people are a heterogeneous group with diverse needs; (2) that the needs of older people are changing over time; and (3) that the needs of older people are different from the needs of younger people.

The strategy is based on the following objectives: (1) to improve the health and well-being of older people; (2) to improve the social and economic participation of older people; and (3) to improve the living conditions of older people.

The strategy is based on the following measures: (1) to improve the health and well-being of older people; (2) to improve the social and economic participation of older people; and (3) to improve the living conditions of older people.
